

ט"ו

When “Right” is Right: How to Shake the Lulav

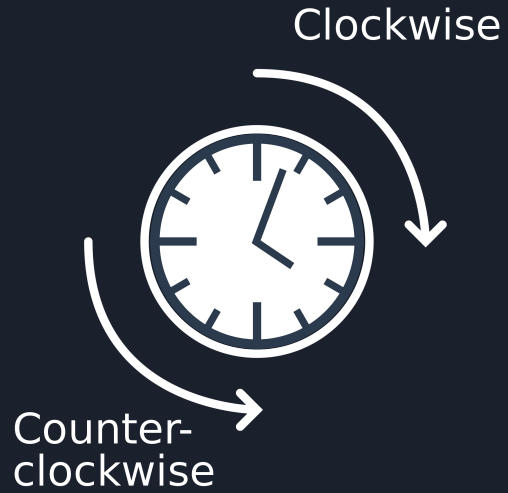

Pictures from Mesivta

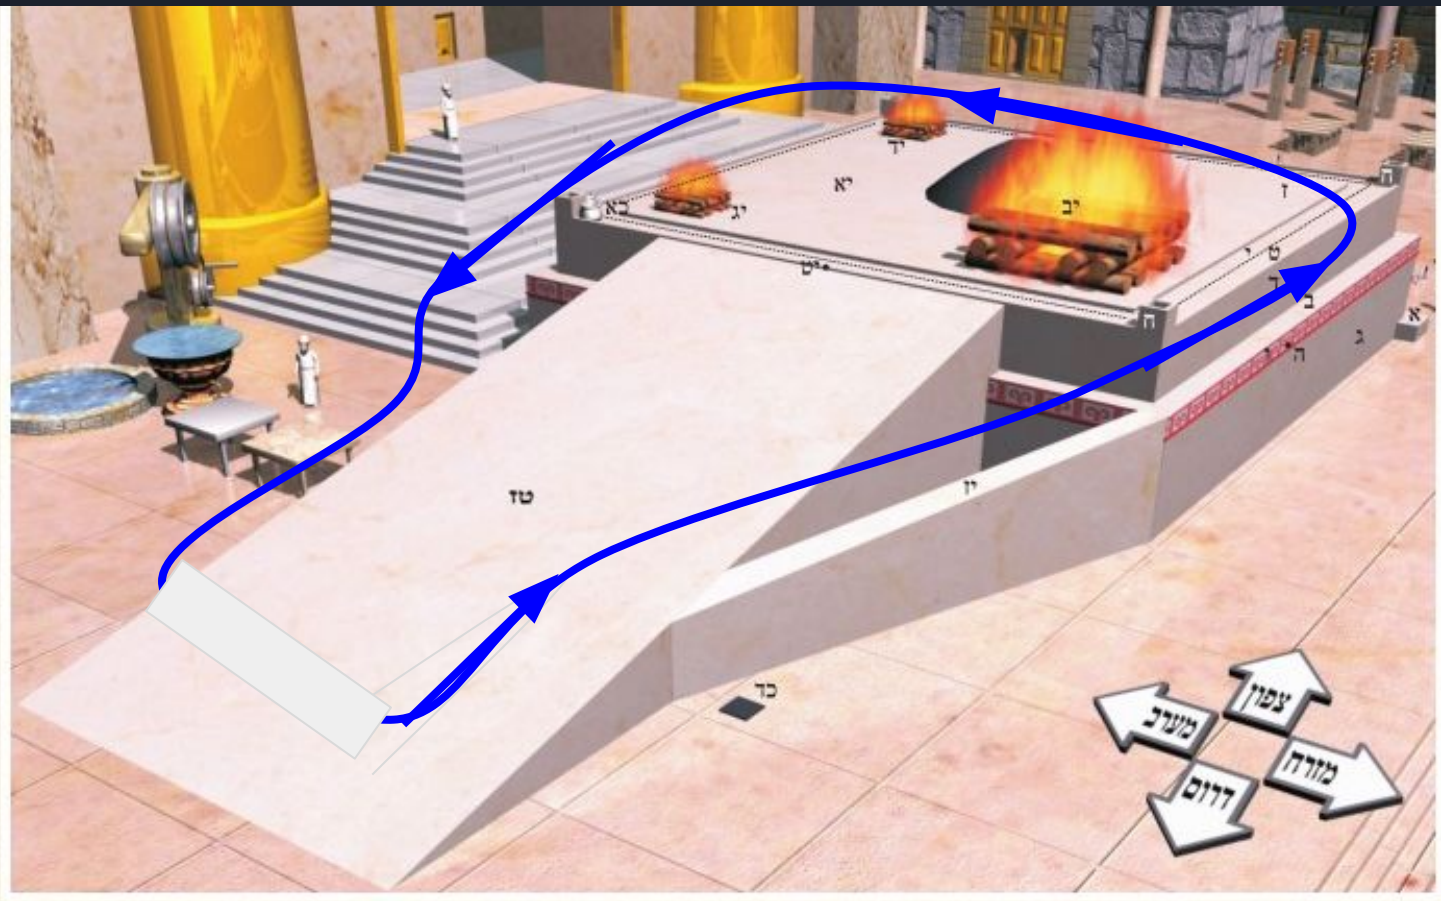

Yitzchak Sultan

Back to basics

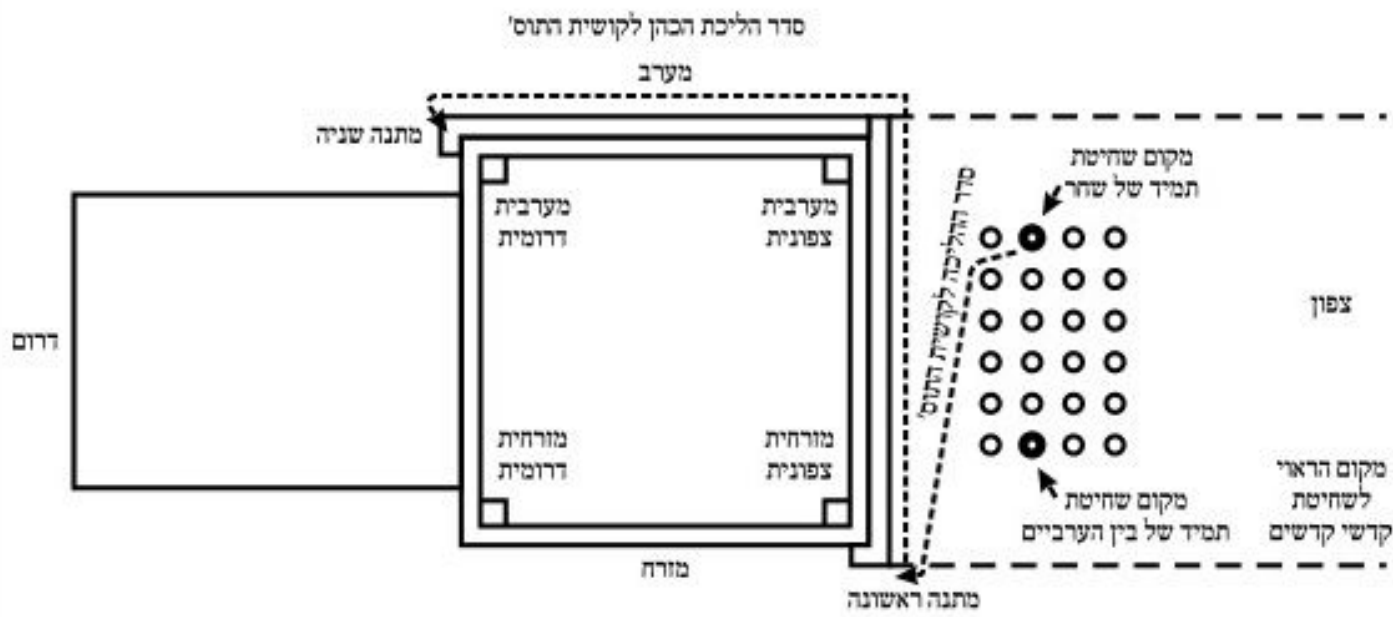

יט. אויר שבין כבש למזבח

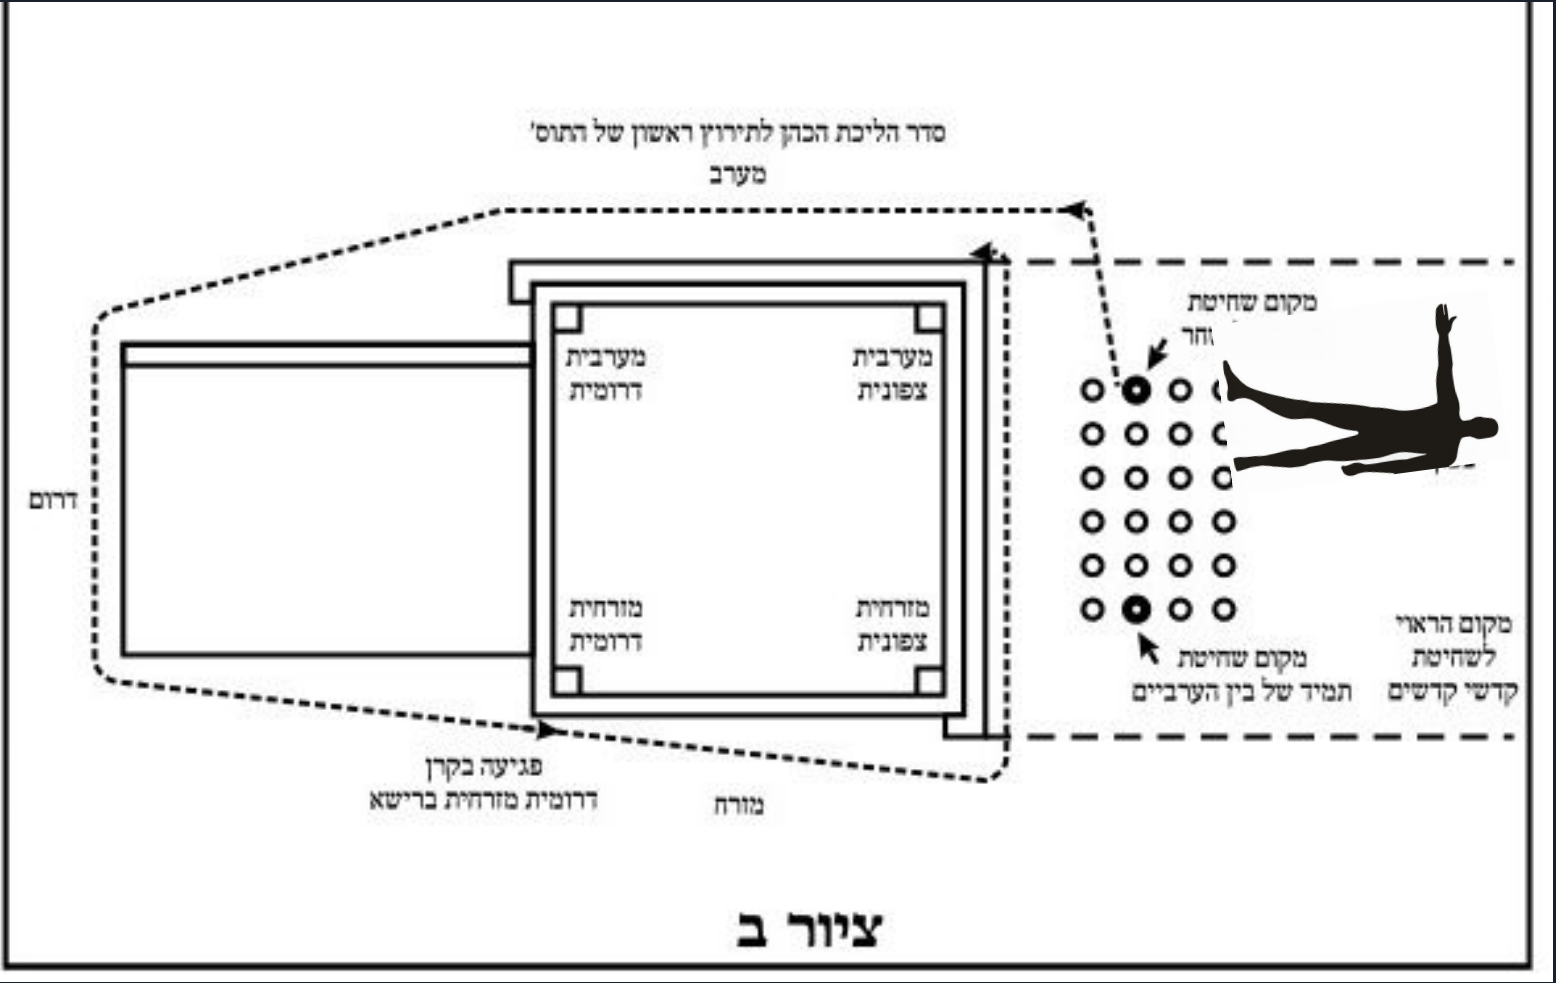

יג. מערכה שניה

ז. גג המזבח

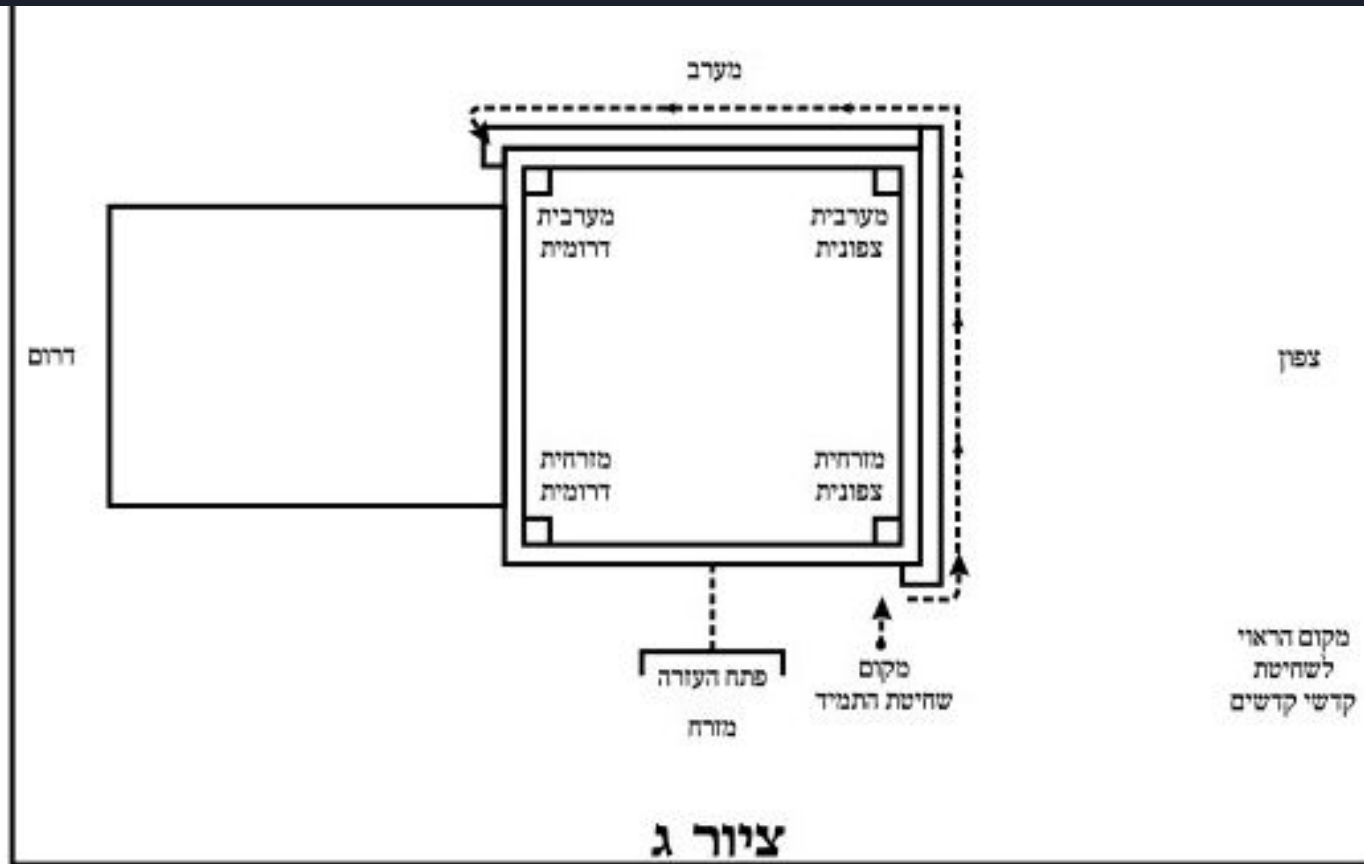

א. יסוד המזבח

ציור א

ציור ב

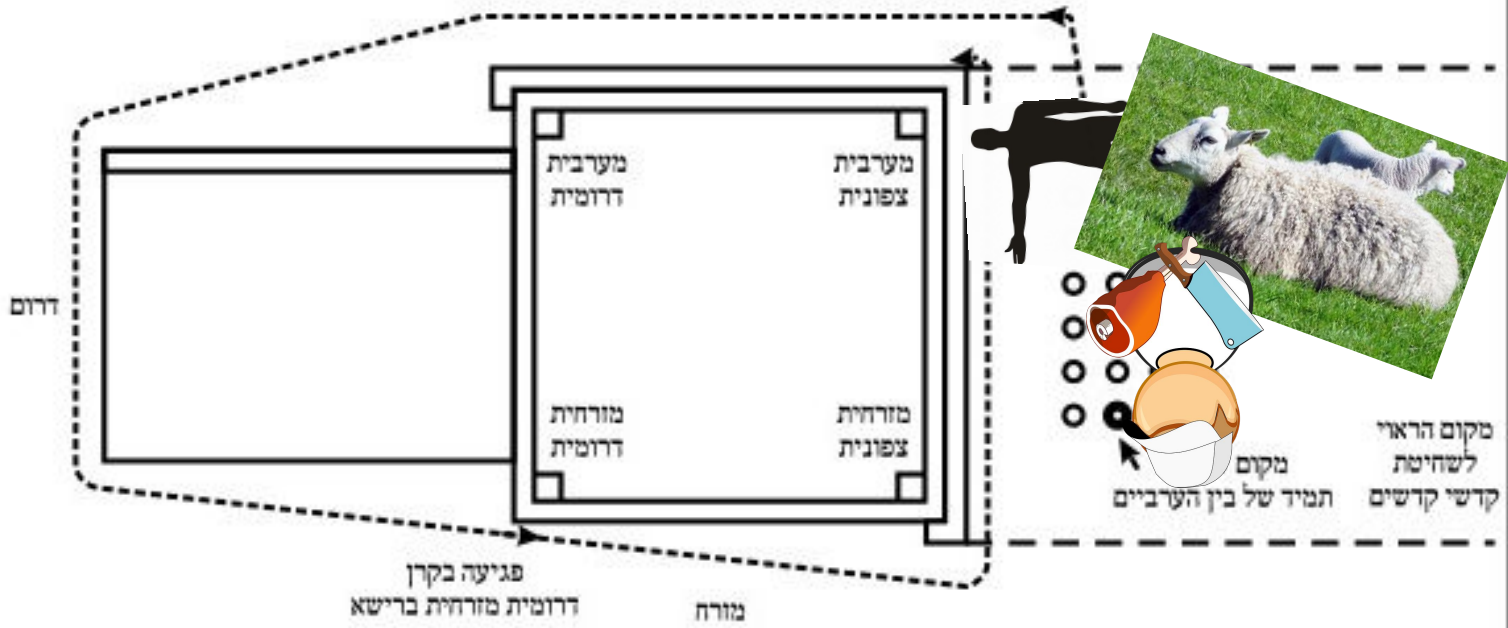

עזרת כהנים

עזרת ישראל

סדר הליכת הכהן לתרוץ ראשון של התום'
מערב

ציור ב

המזבח החיצון

שיטין

ציור ד

ציור ה

מקום עמידת הכהן
בשעת הזאת דם פר
הבא על כל המצוות

ציור ב

Shaking Lulav

Ashkenazim (east, south, west, north, up, down)

Arizal (south, north, east, up, down, west)

What is the order of shaking the lulav?

Levush - counterclockwise

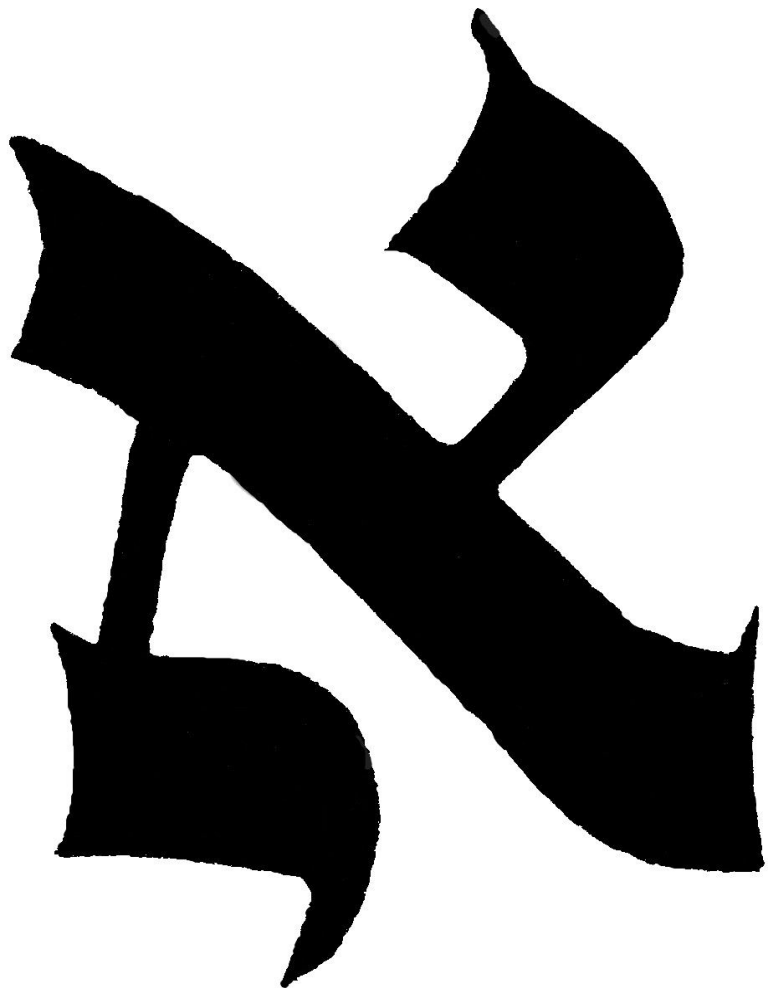

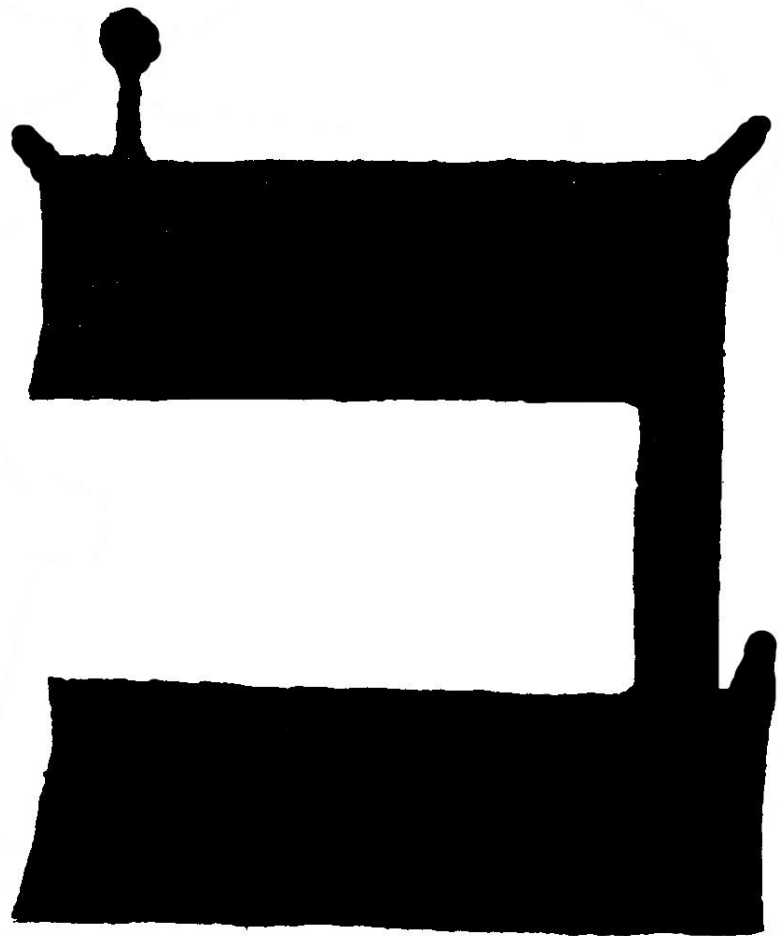

Proofs:

- Zerikot on Mizbe'ach
- Hebrew is written right to left
- Naturally when you take a step you move your right foot first

Malbushei Yom Tov - clockwise

Rejections:

- It depends on what you're facing
- In Shamayim, Hebrew is written left to right
- Hashem wants us to go against nature

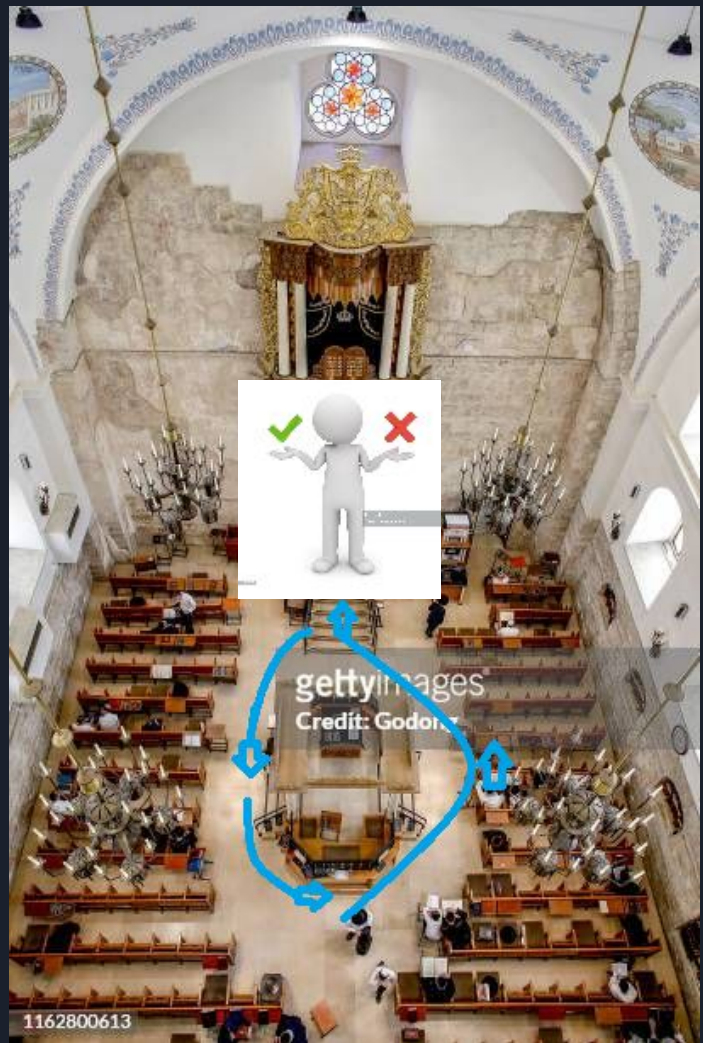

Hakafot

- Counterclockwise around bimah

Taking out the Torah

gettyimages
Credit: Godon

1162800613

Taking out the Torah

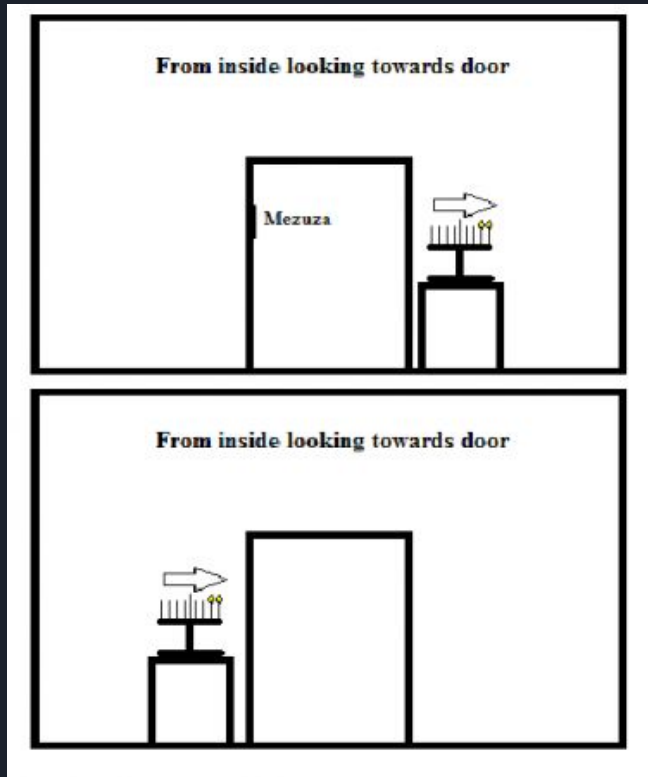

Putting back the Sefer Torah

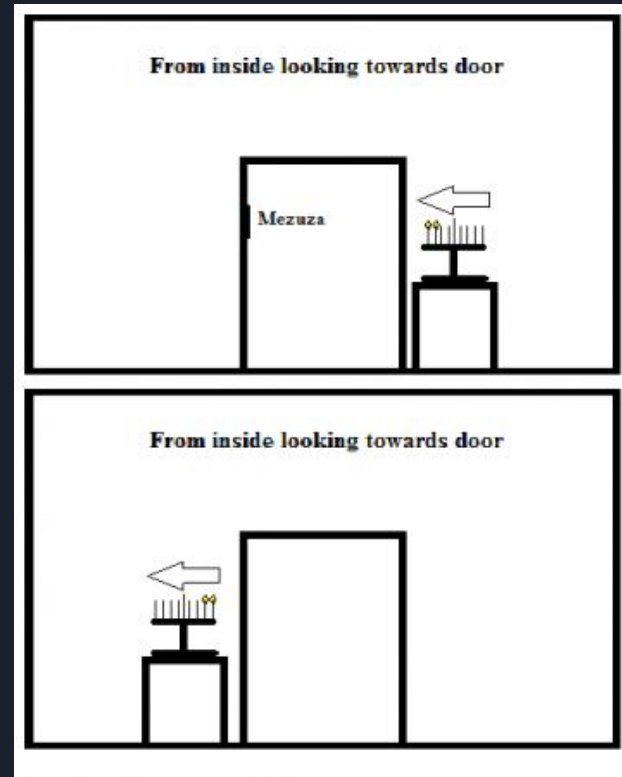

- Torah coming from right side of bimah to Aron (counterclockwise) like Shulchan Aruch/Alter Rebbe
- (Question why Parochet opened from right to left)

Chanuka Candles

Shulchan Aruch

Levush

Summary of minhagim to turn right

Circling around a structure (face inward, counterclockwise)

- Zerikot on Mizbe'ach
- Taking out the Torah
- Hakafot
- Hoshanot
- Kallah around Chosson

Choosing paths (face outward, go right)

- Going to get aliya
- Bedikas chametz

Turning in circle (face outward, clockwise)

- Shaking lulav
- Hagbah
- Birchas Cohanim
- Lecha dodi

Taking step first (face outward, right first)

- Walking down aisle
- (End of shemona esrei)

Bowing different directions (face outward, bow right)

- Birkat Cohanim for Shaliach Tzibur
- (Birkat Cohanim for Cohanim)
- Kara zeh el zeh v'amar
- (End of Shemona Esrei)
- (Brachos Hatorah for Aliya)

Moving in a line (face outward, left to right)

- Opening the Paroches
- Chanuka candles
- Shabbos candles
- (Writing sefer torah)