

Chullin 2

Mishnah: Cheresh, shoteh, katan may not perform shechitah without supervision, lest it go bad<sup>2</sup>

Gemara: Is our mishnah accepting all שוהטיין as a lechatchilah or a bedieved?

- "Their shechitah is kosher" - Bedieved
- Is "All may schecht" lechatchilah?
  - See how it's used elsewhere
    - Bedieved #1 – Temurah, which is bedieved?
    - Bedieved #2 – Vows of erech, which is bedieved?<sup>3 4 5</sup>
    - (2b) Lechatchilah #1 – Succah
    - Lechatchilah #2 – Tzitzit
    - Lechatchilah #3 - Semichah
  - Here it's lechatchilah; otherwise, why add "bedieved it's kosher"?<sup>6</sup>

Gemara: The seifa must mean to include someone I'd have assumed was disqualified. Whom?

- 1 - Rabbah bar Ulla – A טמא may shecht chullin al hataharat hakodesh
  - Parsing the mishnah
    - All may schecht – We don't worry he will touch the meat<sup>7</sup>
    - Their shechitah is kosher – If he did kodashim and says he didn't touch
    - But not הש"י because of concern for bad shechitah
    - If others see, it's kosher – A טמא shechting kodashim, and not present to question<sup>8</sup>
  - But didn't we learn this in a mishnah Zevachim 31b?
  - (3a) Re: The seifa - If he is טמא טומאת מת then he should make the meat טמא!<sup>9</sup>
