

Chullin 3

R' Mordechai Torczyner – torczyner@torontotorah.com

רבינא 2	רבינא 1	רב אשי	רבא	אביי	רבה בר עולא
One who has demonstrated ¹ he doesn't faint	Expert who has not demonstrated proficiency	Mumar ² l'teiavon, ³ given a good knife ^{4 5}	Kuti, and a Jew passes in/out ^{6 7}	Kuti, and watched by a Jew	Tamei schechting chullin al taharat hakodesh	רישא: All may שהט (lechatchilah)
No track record, after he says he didn't faint	Tested after for expert status	Mumar, knife checked after ⁸	Kuti, no Jew, and after Kuti eats ⁹	Kuti, a Jew passes in/out, and after Kuti eats	Tamei schechting kodashim, he says after he didn't touch	Their שחיטה is valid (bedieved)
Concern for a disqualified act						הש"י No
Unavailable to ask whether he fainted	Unavailable to test for expert status	Kashya (חרש, שוטה, קטן I believe it defaults to)			Tamei schechting kodashim, unavailable to say he didn't touch	סיפא: If others watch, fine (bedieved)
We assume one doesn't faint	We assume a שוחט is expert	סיפא; This assumes we follow Rava to accept a mumar who has a good knife	סיפא; Passing in/out shouldn't work since the Kuti is involved with the meat; Are Kutim Jewish? ¹⁰	סיפא; Passing in/out should suffice; Are Kutim Jewish? ¹¹	This was in Zevachim 31b	Weakness of this approach

¹ Raveina says to demonstrate 2 or 3 times; that's to satisfy both views in the debate regarding הזקה (Rashash)

² A mumar who knows the laws of shechitah (Mordechai 573)

³ Machlokes regarding a מומר להכעיס (Rashi 3b מחש"ו 3b, Tosafot 3b קסבר)

⁴ We don't worry he will corrupt the shechitah, and we don't make him eat (Tosafot)

⁵ We don't just say to check it afterward, lest one not check (Tosafot)

⁶ Rava takes אין צריך as lechatchilah, but this is not always so (Tosafot)

⁷ We don't just say to feed him afterward, lest one not do this (Tosafot)

⁸ And יוצא ונכנס does not help (Tosafot)

⁹ Rava compared Kuti to יין נסך, and in the latter case it's fine bedieved, but here we check his eating because the test is available

¹⁰ If Kutim are no good because they converted out of fear, why does Yevamos 24b accept people who convert out of fear? (Tosafot)

¹¹ If Kutim are no good because they converted out of fear, why does Yevamos 24b accept people who convert out of fear? (Tosafot)
