The BBC on Sunday apologized for a headline it published, when reporting on a Palestinian terror attack in Jerusalem on Friday, admitting that its focus on the three slain assailants, rather than the Israeli victim, was inappropriate. "We accept that our original headline did not appropriately reflect the nature of the events and subsequently changed it" BBC said in a statement. "Whilst there was no intention to mislead our audiences, we regret any offense caused." The British news service's preliminary reporting on the attack, in which Border Police Staff Sgt. Hadas Malka, 23, was stabbed to death, was headlined "Three Palestinians killed after deadly stabbing in Jerusalem."

Everybody Into the Pool/JUNE 1, 2016

Four times a week...a public swimming pool on Bedford Avenue in Brooklyn will be temporarily unmoored from the laws of NYC, and the Constitution, and commonly held principles of fairness and equal access. The pool will instead answer to the religious convictions of one neighborhood group. At those hours, women...will have the pool to themselves....Orthodox Jewish beliefs demand modesty in dress, and a strict separation of the sexes, and those are the beliefs to which the taxpayer-owned-and-operated Metropolitan Recreation Center will yield....The city's human rights law...allows for exemptions "based on bona fide considerations of public policy," but this case — with its strong odor of religious intrusion into a secular space — does not seem bona fide at all. Indeed, what Mr. Hikind, in a statement... wrote: "The community can rest much easier this Shabbos knowing that men and women can continue to swim separately." It's pretty clear what "community" Mr. Hikind means, and it is not the diverse neighborhood he was elected to represent, nor one that includes everybodyThe best solution would be for the city to immediately end religious segregation in the pools...Let those who cannot abide public, secular rules at a public, secular pool find their own private place to swim when and with whom they see fit.

In Toronto, a Neighborhood in Despair Transforms Into a Model of Inclusion/ FEB. 28, 2016

...Idil Hassan watched her young daughter splash with other children....The center has given Ms. Hassan, a 34-year-old nurse, the ability to do something more than just watch her child: she, too, can join in. On Saturday evenings, mechanized screens shroud the center's expansive glass walls to create a session that allows only women and girls to relax in the hot tub, swim laps or careen down the water slide...treasured by many of the neighborhood's Muslim residents. "I wouldn't come before because my religion doesn't allow women to be seen uncovered by men...It's really helpful to have that day to be ourselves. I even learned to swim." From the start, the city and the developer incorporated residents' needs into the design, ...scheduling private swimming and yoga classes for women. "It didn't happen by itself," said Sureya Ibrahim, an Ethiopian immigrant and community activist who is Muslim... "We had to fight to make the redevelopment accessible and inclusive, but now it's really a model of collaboration." The aquatic center reflects that ethos of inclusion. ..."Everyone wants to be as Canadian as possible," he said. "You don't want people to know you're Muslim, or an immigrant, or a black person. What they don't realize is being Canadian means being yourself."

UN Envoys Go Through Metal Detectors Into Session To Condemn Israel For Metal Detectors

"Who could ever agree to go through such humiliation as magnometers?"

"New York, July 24 – Delegates to the United Nations Security Council passed through devices to detect the presence of the metal in weapons and ammunition today, en route to convening in the organization's chamber for purposes of issuing a condemnation of Israel for installing those devices. Council representatives assembled at their seats in the hall, after passing through magnometers as they entered the building, for security purposes. They then began to deliberate the formulation and intensity of a resolution to condemn Israel for installing magnometers at the Temple Mount for security purposes following the murder of two police officers with weapons smuggled into the compound. "This session will come to order," declared Council President Hippo Critt of the Republic of Macedonia. "The purpose of this emergency session, called at the request of the Palestinian ambassador, is to vote on a declaration in condemnation of Israel's placement of metal detectors at the Haram al-Sharif, in violation of 1967 agreements with the Jordanian Waqf under which Israel retains security control over the site." Forty-five minutes earlier, Critt and two aides walked through the service entrance from the UN facility's underground parking, where they passed through metal detectors similar to the units positioned by Israeli police at the Temple Mount. He then gave the Palestinian envoy the floor. "This is a violation of everything sacred," averred Mustafa Massikr. "Metal detectors at the Noble Sanctuary are an affront to everything sacred. As the Mufti has declared, the prayers of anyone passing through those satanic devices are not counted. The Zionist devils have left loyal Palestinians no choice but to stay out of the Haram. Who could ever agree to go through such humiliation as magnometers?" He made the remarks in a building where every entrance from the outside requires people to pass through metal detectors or similar security measures, which he and his staff do multiple times daily.

"שבת בשבתו", נקודת מבט מפי הרב ישראל רוזן, [כלק תשע"ה] - בצעירותי התחנכנו על מסה מפורסמת בשם "עם לבדד ישכון" שנישאה שנה לאחר מלחמת ששת הימים (1968) ע"י דיפלומט ישראלי יחודי, שגריר ישראל בקנדה, הלא הוא הרב ד"ר (למשפטים) יעקב הרצוג (בן הרב הראשי י"א הרצוג, אחי הנשיא חיים הרצוג, ודודו של בוז'י הרצוג). וכך נאם: "אומר פה ברשותכם קצת דברי אפיקורסות; פה הפרדוקס העצום; הציונות הקלסית לא תפשה שתי בעיות יסוד, היא לא הבינה לא את העם היהודי ולא את העם הערבי. אנשי המנהיגות הציונית גרסו שאנו נחזור במסלול רגיל של המאה ה-20. עשרות עמים התחילו אחרי מלחמת העולם הראשונה לקבל עצמאות כלשהי, וגם אנו נקבל כאן עצמאות. אנחנו ניהפך לעם נורמלי, ונהיה משוחררים מעומס הגלות ומקובלים ברחבי תבל. באו העובדות וטפחו על פני התיאוריה הזאת כפי שלא טפחו על שום תיאוריה, כמדומני. הציונות הפוליטית גרסה שהמושג של 'עם לבדד ישכון' הוא בעצם מושג אנורמלי. ובאמת המושג של 'עם לבדד ישכון' הוא המושג הטבעי של בית ישראל"
